THE DESCENDANTS OF JOSEPH FRAZEY

F E T. F 865

Joseph Frazey (Fraza, Frazy, Phrazy), with his wife Mary, who is thought to have been a Pearsall (spelling varies) were living in Mansfield Twp., Burlington Co., N. J., Oct. 31, 1783, when they deeded to Nicholas Lundeck two plots of ground located in Little Egg Harbor Twp. Subsequently they removed to Brush Creek Valley in Bedford (now Fulton) Co., Penna. Joseph was frozen to death, or died of illness, during an absence from home. His estate was administered by the Rev. Thomas Runyan pioneer preacher, who married his widow. In Nov., 1808, Runyan reported the value of the estate £113 11s 7½d, and on Mar. 12, 1821, final settlement was made. Joseph's grave is unknown, but his wife rests beside her second husband, Runyan, in the Sideling Hill Baptist Cemetery, the marker attesting that she died Mar. 18, 1858, in her 97th year. Nothing is definitely known of Joseph's nationality. A Bedford Co. history says he was of Scotch descent and came from Long Island in the early days. Apparently he never took title to land in Bedford Co.

SAMUEL (c1779-1840) m Hester (or Esther) Morrow; lived in Franklin Co., Penna., between 1804-08; thence removed to Zanesville, Muskingum Co., O., where he was a prominent citizen. He was the founder of the village of Frazeyburg, in the northeastern part of the county, and is buried in a handsome (for its day) vault in the village cemetery.

CHARITY ( ) m 1. Correll; 2. Jacob Tanner; and
 3. Eichelberger

MARY ( ) m Daniel McClain 11/26/1809 at Zanesville, O.
 One record gives her birth-date as 1788, which, if correct, makes her a twin of John-2.

ANNA ( ) m Elisha Barton, brother to Rachel.

JOEL, a joiner, who lived in Franklin Co., Pa., with Samuel-2 about 1804-1806. He died in the latter year and Samuel administered the estate. He was probably single, and there is no evidence as to the relationship between him and Samuel-2. Samuel-2 names his oldest son Joel L.

* (Footnote omitted from p. 6) "Monroe" was a given name, not his real family name which is said to have been Miller. The Rev. R. B. Allender, to whom he went to school, gave him the name "Hixon". It is probable that his mother was a Hixon related to Joseph's wife, Sitha. The mother died when he was a baby.
